He explained that DeSoto has limited usable contiguous industrial space since it is land locked, so it's a double edge sword. Ms. Toomey said she went to the next round from the regular tour not the diversity tour. From the diversity tour, she said two people went to the second round of the Shark Tank TV Show which includes completing a pretty daunting 34 page application. She explained it is a good experience for these business owners to grow whether they go beyond this stage or not, because it is will require them to look closer at their financials and expand their business plan.

b. Ms. Toomey said James McGee, Peace Love & Eatz, with the other vegan restaurant owners in the area are looking at creating a vegan cooking show. She reported Monte Anderson, Owner, Options Real Estate, agreed to fund part of the project. She said that it will cost about $50, 000 for four months of programing to put on this type of TV show, which she feels one person cannot cover alone. Currently, she is writing grants to local banks in the community. She explained that we are not trying to make people become vegan, but we are trying to get them to understand how to eat better by providing other options. She points out that it can be broadcasted free on the government channel, but it cannot be commercial. Therefore, she said we can save that expense since most of the expense is from the videotaping. She is also asking James McGee, Peace Love & Eatz, to put together a proposal for all of the vegan restaurants in the area. She explains that the higher profiles of the vegan restaurants will raise the profiles of his vegan restaurant as well. She elaborated Mr. McGee will have guest spots for the vegan restaurants and feature the Grow DeSoto Market Place restaurants on the show also. She reiterated we want to be known for promoting good options for everyone. She asked if anyone has contacts with other businesses who would be interested, because she points out the grant funds do not need to come from just banks sources.

c. Ms. Toomey mentioned that she canceled the customer service series for the Grow DeSoto Market Place since none of the tenants were interested in attending. She explained that the problem is that they do not see there is a need for customer service, and they do not know why it is important.

Then Rene Johnson, Interim City Manager, explained that in this meeting they need to discuss getting a Master Developer.
2. President Curtis Krohn explained that the next Board meeting may be moved to March 16, 2020; however, he said he will check with Board Secretary Treasurer Michelle Jordan and Board Vice President Dr. Delva King regarding their availability before changing it. Mr. Newman recommended to the Board that they move the Monday, May 25, 2020 DEDC Board meeting to Monday, June 1, 2020 since Monday, May 25, 2020 is the Memorial Day Holiday and he will not be able to move it to Monday May 16, 2020 due to his plans to attend the International Council of Shopping Center(ICSC).
3. Mr. Newman discussed the challenges they are facing with requiring the GDMP tenants to be open during business hours which they agreed to in their lease agreement. He expounded that we try to cover all possible bases, but they may not realize the work that is involved in it or treat it like a hobby. He discussed the new restaurants which he is aware of that are opening soon both in the GDMP and in the DeSoto community. He noted that there are several new restaurants opening for example: A popcorn and pickle restaurant in the GDMP, in the Town Center next door the Cheesesteak Bar Restaurant, across the street is the Fuzzy's, and down the street is the Chipotle. Councilmember Andre' Byrd, Sr. asked to be provided with a list of new restaurants that are opening so that it could be promoted on each councilmember's page as well.
4. Mr. Newman reported that Board Director Bobby Waddle and Curtis Krohn met with the City Councils at their winter retreat on Friday, February 7, 2020 to Saturday, February 8, 2020. He said they talked about restructuring the EDC. He said he will meet with the new city manager to see what he suggests to run the EDC better.

5. Mr. Newman said that President Curtis Krohn suggested that we have the Retail Coach come back for a Town Hall Meeting and have it videotaped so that they can answer any questions that the citizens may have. The Retail Coach can show what businesses we are targeting. He pointed out that it will cost us to bring them back to have a discussion with the citizens.

7. Mr. Newman exclaimed that the Texas Economic Development Council (TEDC) conference was one of the Best Conferences he has attended. 8. Mr. Newman gave the Board of Directors a list of Commercial Projects the City has on their website to update them on the current city projects that we often get questions on by citizens.

In addition, he showed the Board of Director's the list of shows and conferences that are available for him to attend, but he said the audit report showed that attending many of the conferences in the past gave very little return on the investment.
10. Board Director Paul Griffin, Jr. asked if there are other revenue streams such as bonds and hotel occupancy similar to other cities bringing in funding that we might use to maximize revenue potential as well as discuss the kind of partnerships we should consider at the next DEDC Retreat. Mr. Newman pointed out the line items on the Budget for the Bond packages we currently owe. Also, he noted the partnership with the City of Desoto for the Hotel Occupancy Tax that goes directly to the City of DeSoto and not through the comptroller.

Board of Directors
DeSoto Economic Development Corporation
DeSoto, Texas

We have audited the financial statements of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation (the "EDC") as of and for the year ended September 30, 2019 and have issued our report thereon dated _____, 2020. Professional standards require that we advise you of the following matters relating to our audit.

Our Responsibility in Relation to the Financial Statement Audit

As communicated in our engagement letter dated September 11, 2019, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to form and express opinions about whether the financial statements that have been prepared by management with your oversight are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your respective responsibilities.

Our responsibility, as prescribed by professional standards, is to plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable, rather than absolute, assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit of financial statements includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, as part of our audit, we considered the internal control of the EDC solely for the purpose of determining our audit procedures and not to provide any assurance concerning such internal control.

We are also responsible for communicating significant matters related to the audit that are, in our professional judgment, relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to communicate to you.

Planned Scope and Timing of the Audit

We conducted our audit consistent with the planned scope and timing we previously communicated to you.

Compliance with All Ethics Requirements Regarding Independence

The engagement team, others in our firm, and, as appropriate, our firm have complied with all relevant ethical requirements regarding independence.

As a part of the engagement we assisted in preparing the financial statements and related notes to the financial statements of the EDC in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. These nonaudit services do not constitute an audit under Government Auditing Standards and such services were not conducted in accordance with Government Auditing Standards.

DRAFT

In order to ensure we maintain our independence for performing these nonaudit services, certain safeguards were applied to this engagement. Management assumed responsibility for the financial statements and related notes to the financial statements and any other nonaudit services we provided. Management acknowledged in the management representation letter our assistance with the preparation of the financial statements and related notes to the financial statements and that these items were reviewed and approved prior to their issuance and accepted responsibility for them. Further, the nonaudit services were oversaw by an individual within management that has the suitable skill, knowledge, or experience; evaluated the adequacy and results of the services; and accepted responsibility for them.

Qualitative Aspects of the Entity's Significant Accounting Practices

Significant Accounting Policies

Management has the responsibility to select and use appropriate accounting policies. A summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the EDC is included in Note I to the financial statements. There have been no initial selection of accounting policies and no changes in sinificant accounting policies or their application during fiscal year 2019. No matters have come to our attention that would require us, under professional standards, to inform you about (1) the methods used to account for significant unusual transactions and (2) the effect of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

Significant Accounting Estimates

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's current judgments. Those judgments are normally based on knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ markedly from management's current judgments.

The most sensitive accounting estimates affecting the financial statements are:

Management's estimate of the useful lives of capital assets is based on the expected lifespan of the asset in accordance with standard guidelines. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the estimate of useful lives in determining that it is reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole and in relation to the applicable opinion units.

Management's estimate of the net pension liability and pension expense are based on actuarial assumptions which are determined by the demographics of the plan and future projections that the actuarial makes based on historical information of the plan and the investment market. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the net pension liability and pension expense and determined that they are reasonable in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole and in relation to the applicable opinion units.

Financial Statement Disclosures

Certain financial statement disclosures involve significant judgment and are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most sensitive disclosures affecting the EDC's financial statements relate to the net pension liability. The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Significant Difficulties Encountered during the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management relating to the performance of the audit.

Uncorrected and Corrected Misstatements

For purposes of this communication, professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that we believe are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Further, professional standards require us to also communicate the effect of uncorrected misstatements related to prior periods on the relevant classes of transactions, account balances or disclosures, and the financial statements as a whole and each applicable opinion unit. Management has corrected all identified misstatements.

In addition, professional standards require us to communicate to you all material, corrected misstatements that were brought to the attention of management as a result of our audit procedures.

None of the misstatements identified by us as a result of our audit procedures and corrected by management were material, either individually or in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole or applicable opinion units.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, concerning a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, which could be significant to the EDC's financial statements or the auditor's report. No such disagreements arose during the course of the audit.

Representations Requested from Management

We have requested certain written representations from management, which are included in the management representation letter dated _____, 2020.

Management's Consultations with Other Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters. Management informed us that, and to our knowledge, there were no consultations with other accountants regarding auditing and accounting matters.

Other Significant Matters, Findings, or Issues

In the normal course of our professional association with the EDC, we generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, operating and regulatory conditions affecting the entity, and operational plans and strategies that may affect the risks of material misstatement. None of the matters discussed resulted in a condition to our retention as the EDC's auditors.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the EDC's board of directors and management of the EDC and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors of
DeSoto Economic Development Corporation
DeSoto, Texas

Report on Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the governmental activities and general fund of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation, a component unit of the City of DeSoto, Texas, as of and for the year ended September 30, 2019, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion of the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Opinions

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of the governmental activities and general fund of DeSoto Economic Development Corporation, as of September 30, 2019, and the respective changes in financial position for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters

Required Supplementary Information

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the management's discussion and analysis, budgetary comparison information, and pension information be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operations, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated _____, 2020, on our consideration of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's internal control over financial reporting and compliance

Management's Discussion and Analysis

As management of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation (the "Corporation"), we offer readers of the Corporation's financial statements this narrative overview and analysis of the financial activities of the Corporation for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019. We encourage readers to consider the information presented here in conjunction with the financial statements which follow this section.

Financial Highlights

- The assets and deferred outflows of resources of the Corporation exceeded its liabilities and deferred inflows of resources at the close of the 2019 fiscal year by $1,934,374 (net position), an increase of $47,077 from the prior year.
- As of the close of fiscal year 2019, the Corporation's governmental fund reported an ending fund balance of $3,498,818, which is a decrease of $173,098 from the prior year.
- The Corporation's long-term liabilities had a net decrease of $227,604 due primarily to principal payments on notes payable to the City of DeSoto totaling $15,000, a principal payment of $205,000 for revenue bonds.

Overview of the Financial Statements

This discussion and analysis is intended to serve as an introduction to the Corporation's basic financial statements. The Corporation's basic financial statements are comprised of three components: 1) government-wide financial statements, 2) fund financial statements, and 3) notes to the financial statements. This report also contains other supplementary information in addition to the basic financial statements themselves.

Government-wide Financial Statements

The government-wide financial statements are designed to provide readers with a broad overview of the Corporation's finances, in a format similar to a private-sector business.

The statement of net position presents information on all of the Corporation's assets, deferred outflows, liabilities and deferred inflows, with the difference between the four reported as net positions. Over time, increases or decreases in net position may serve as a useful indicator of whether the financial position of the Corporation is improving or deteriorating.

The statement of activities presents information showing how the Corporation's net position changed during the fiscal year. All changes in net position are reported as soon as the underlying event giving rise to the change occurs, regardless of the timing of related cash flows. Thus, revenues and expenses are reported in this statement for some items that will only result in cash flows in future fiscal periods (e.g., uncollected taxes).

Both of the government-wide financial statements distinguish functions of the Corporation that are principally supported by taxes and intergovernmental revenues (governmental activities) from other functions that are intended to recover all or a significant portion of their costs through user fees and charges (business-type activities). The Corporation does not contain any business type activities. The Corporation was created for the purpose of promoting economic development within the City of DeSoto.

The government-wide financial statements can be found on pages 9 and 10 of this report.

DRAFT

Fund Financial Statements

A fund is a grouping of related accounts that is used to maintain control over resources that have been segregated for specific activities or objectives. The Corporation, like other state and local government entities, uses fund accounting to ensure and demonstrate compliance with finance-related legal requirements. The Corporation has only governmental funds in its financial statements.

Governmental Funds

Governmental funds are used to account for essentially the same functions reported as governmental activities in the government-wide financial statements. However, unlike the government-wide financial statements, governmental fund financial statements focus on near-term inflows and outflows of spendable resources, as well as on balances of spendable resources available at the end of the fiscal year. Such information may be useful in evaluating a government's near-term financing requirements.

Because the focus of governmental funds is narrower than that of the government-wide financial statements, it is useful to compare the information presented for governmental funds with similar information presented for governmental activities in the government-wide financial statements. By doing so, the reader may better understand the long-term impact of the government's near-term financing decisions. Both the governmental fund balance sheet and the governmental fund statement of revenues, expenditures, and changes in fund balances provide a reconciliation to facilitate this comparison between governmental funds and governmental activities.

The Corporation maintains one governmental fund. Information is presented separately in the governmental fund balance sheet and in the governmental fund statement of revenues, expenditures, and changes in fund balances for the General Fund, which is considered to be a major fund.

The governmental fund financial statements can be found on pages 11 through 14 of this report.

Notes to the Financial Statements

The notes provide additional information that is essential to a full understanding of the data provided in the government-wide and fund financial statements. The notes to the financial statements can be found on pages 15 through 20 of this report.

Other Information

In addition to the basic financial statements and accompanying notes, this report also presents certain required supplementary information. The Corporation adopts an annual appropriated budget for its General Fund and presents pension system information. A budgetary comparison schedule is presented as required supplementary information to demonstrate compliance with this budget disclosure requirements.

These required supplementary information with accompanying footnotes can be found on pages 21 through 22 of this report.

Government-Wide Financial Analysis

As noted earlier, net position may serve over time as a useful indicator of a government's financial position. As of September 30, 2019, the Corporation's assets and deferred outflows exceeded liabilities and deferred inflows by $1,934,374.

Financial Analysis and Budgetary Highlights of Corporation Funds

As noted earlier, the Corporation uses fund accounting to ensure and demonstrate compliance with finance-related legal requirements.

Governmental Funds

The focus of the Corporation's governmental funds is to provide information on near-term inflows, outflows, and balances of spendable resources. Such information is useful in assessing the Corporation's financing requirements. In particular, unassigned fund balance may serve as a useful measure of a Corporation's net resources available for spending at the end of the fiscal year.

At the end of the 2019 fiscal year, the Corporation's general fund reported combined ending fund balances of $3,498,818 a decrease of $173,098 from the prior year. This total amount is available for spending at the Corporation's discretion and in accordance with state statutes.

General Fund

In the general fund, the Corporation budgeted for a decrease in fund balance of $850,715. The actual revenue of $2,927,570 was more than the revised budgeted revenues by $85,270. This occurred primarily because rent revenue exceeded expectations as the Corporation took a more conservative approach when developing the budget based on the current market conditions. Actual expenditures of $3,100,668 were $592,347 less than the revised budgeted expenditures of $3,693,015. This occurred primarily because expectations of private sector investment initiatives did not materialize. Additionally, several companies eligible for incentives did not meet performance obligations in 2019.

Treasury Management

The Corporation maintains sufficient liquidity in its cash and investments portfolio to meet its contingency grant funding obligations and to have capital available to fund economic development opportunities that sporadically occur. The Corporation's cash and investments balance $3,118,309 and is held as follows:

Bank Accounts
Wells Fargo Bank Operating Account	$ 2,331,994	Yield .23%
Bank of DeSoto	36,307

Investments
Description	Amount	Yield	Maturity
CD, Chase	$ 250,000	1.64%	4/5/2020
CD, Comerica	250,000	0.30%	10/4/2019
CD, Plains Capital Bank	250,000	2.01%	6/20/2020

Sufficient funds are held in the operating account to meet anticipated current obligations (obligations due within 180 days). Funds held for longer periods are invested in high yield certificates of deposits or U.S. Treasury Notes with maturities of one year or less.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The DeSoto Economic Development Corporation (the "Corporation") was incorporated October 5, 1994 as a nonprofit economic development corporation under the Development Corporation Act of 1979 (the Act). The Corporation has a five-member board of directors appointed by the City of DeSoto, Texas (the City) Council. The Corporation is considered a discretely presented component unit of the City.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for the purposes of promoting the economic development of the City by encouraging new business to locate or expand in the City.

The citizens of the City approved the adoption of a sales and use tax within the City at the rate of ⅜ of one percent sales and use tax, effective January 1, 1995. The proceeds of the sales and use tax shall only be used by the Corporation as authorized by the voters and in accordance with Section 4A of the Act.

The accounting policies of the Corporation conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as applicable to governmental units. The following is a summary of the more significant policies:

A. Government-Wide and Fund Financial Statements

The government-wide financial statements (i.e., the statement of net position and the statement of activities) report information on the activities of the Corporation.

The statement of net position presents information on all the Corporation's assets, liabilities, deferred outflows, and deferred inflows with the difference between the four reported as "net position". Over time, increases or decreases in net position may serve as a useful indicator of whether the financial position of the Corporation is improving or deteriorating.

The statement of activities reports the change in the Corporation's net position. This statement demonstrates the degree to which the direct expenses of a given function of government are offset by program revenues. Direct expenses are those that are clearly identifiable with a specific function of government. Program revenues include 1) charges to customers or applicants who purchase, use, or directly benefit from goods, services, or privileges provided by a given function and 2) grants and contributions that are restricted to meeting the operational or capital requirements of a particular function or segment. Taxes and other items not properly included among program revenues are reported instead as general revenues in the statement of activities.

In addition to the government-wide financial statements, the Corporation also reports separate financial statements for governmental funds; these statements are classified as fund financial statements. The fund financial statements are organized on the basis of funds, each of which is considered a separate accounting entity with self-balancing accounts that comprise its assets, liabilities, fund equity, revenues and expenditures. Governmental resources are allocated to and accounted for in individual funds based upon the purposes for which they are to be spent and the means by which spending activities are controlled.

DRAFT

The Corporation reports its one fund as a major governmental fund at September 30, 2019 as follows:

General Fund

The General Fund is the operating fund of the Corporation. This fund is used to account for all financial resources of the general government.

B. Measurement Focus/Basis of Accounting

The government-wide financial statements are reported using the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded when a liability is incurred, regardless of the timing of related cash flows. Sales tax revenues are considered non-exchange transactions and are recorded when the underlying transaction generating the tax occurs.

With the economic resources measurement focus, all assets and liabilities (whether current or noncurrent) are reported on the statement of net position.

Governmental fund financial statements are reported using the current financial resources measurement focus and the modified accrual basis of accounting. Revenue is recognized when it becomes measurable and available. Measurable means the amount of the transaction can be determined. Available means collected within the current period or soon enough thereafter to be used to pay liabilities of the current period. For this purpose, the Corporation considers revenues to be available if they are collected within 60 days of the end of the current fiscal period. When both restricted and unrestricted resources are available for use, it is the Corporation's policy to use restricted resources first, then unrestricted resources as they are needed.

Expenditures are recognized under the modified accrual basis of accounting when the related fund liability is incurred, with the exception of principal and interest on long-term debt and certain other long-term liabilities, which are recognized when due and payable.

C. Cash and Investments

The Corporation's cash are considered to be cash on hand and demand deposits. The Corporation's investments are certificates of deposit. Investments for the Corporation are reported at fair value. The Corporation categorizes fair value measurements of its investments based on the hierarchy established by generally accepted accounting principles. The fair value hierarchy, which has three levels, is based on the valuation inputs used to measure an asset's fair value: Level 1 inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets; Level 2 inputs are significant other observable inputs; level 3 inputs are significant unobservable inputs.

D. Capital Assets

Capital assets, which include land, buildings, furniture, fixtures, and equipment, are reported in the government-wide financial statements. All capital assets are recorded at historical cost or estimated historical cost. Assets capitalized have an original cost of $5,000 or more. Depreciation has been calculated using the straight-line method. Estimated useful lives are as follows:

Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	5-10 years

Donated capital assets are valued at their fair market value on the date donated. Repairs and maintenance are recorded as expenses. The costs of normal maintenance and repairs that do not add to the value of the asset or materially extend asset lives are not capitalized.

E. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues, expenditures and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

F. Fund Balance

The governmental fund financial statements present fund balances based on classifications that comprise a hierarchy that is based primarily on the extent to which the Corporation is bound to honor constraints on the specific purposes for which amounts in the respective governmental funds can be spent. The classifications used in the governmental fund financial statements are as follows:

- Nonspendable: This classification includes amounts that cannot be spent because they are either (a) not in spendable form or (b) are legally or contractually required to be maintained intact. Nonspendable items are not expected to be converted to cash or are not expected to be converted to cash within the next year.

- Restricted: This classification includes amounts for which constraints have been placed on the use of the resources either (a) externally imposed by creditors, grantors, contributors, or laws or regulations of other governments, or (b) imposed by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation.

- Committed: This classification includes amounts that can be used only for specific purposes pursuant to constraints imposed by ordinance of the Board of Directors. These amounts cannot be used for any other purpose unless the Board of Directors removes or changes the specified use by taking the same type of action that was employed when the funds were initially committed. This classification also includes contractual obligations to the extent that existing resources have been specifically committed for use in satisfying those contractual requirements.

- Assigned: This classification includes amounts that are constrained by the Corporation's intent to be used for a specific purpose but are neither restricted nor committed. The Board of Directors delegate the authority for determining this intent to the CEO. Assignments are made at the CEO's discretion, but generally represent items for which specific funds have been informally dedicated internally.

- Unassigned: This classification includes the residual fund balance for the General Fund. The unassigned classification also includes negative residual fund balance of any other governmental fund that cannot be eliminated by offsetting of assigned fund balance amounts.

When an expenditure is incurred for purposes for which both restricted and unrestricted fund balance is available, the Corporation considers restricted funds to have been spent first. When an expenditure is incurred for which committed, assigned, or unassigned fund balances are available, the Corporation considers amounts to have been spent first out of committed funds, then assigned funds, and finally unassigned funds.

G. Deferred Outflows/Inflows of Resources

In addition to assets, the statement of financial position will sometimes report a separate section for deferred outflows of resources. This separate financial statement element represents a consumption of net position that applies to a future period(s) and so will not be recognized as an outflow of resources (expense/expenditure) until then. The Corporation is reporting balances for deferred losses on bond refunding in the Statement of Net Position. A deferred loss on a bond refunding results when the reacquisition price of the refunded debt exceeds the carrying value. This amount is deferred and amortized over the shorter of the life of the refunded or refunding debt.

In addition to liabilities, the statement of financial position will sometimes report a separate section for deferred inflows of resources. This separate financial statement element, deferred inflows of resources, represents an acquisition of net position or fund balance that applies to a future period(s) and so will not be recognized as an inflow of resources (revenue) until that time.

2. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Deposits: State statutes require that all deposits in financial institutions be insured by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or fully collateralized as per the Public Funds Collateral Act.

Custodial Credit Risk - Deposits are exposed to custodial credit risk if they are not covered by depository insurance and the deposits are uncollateralized, collateralized with securities held by the pledging financial institution, or collateralized with securities held by the pledging financial institution's trust department or agent but not in the Corporation's name. Investment securities are exposed to custodial credit risk if the securities are uninsured, are not registered in the name of the government, and are held by either the counterparty or the counterparty's trust department or agent but not in the Corporation's name. The Corporation's cash deposits at year-end were entirely covered by FDIC insurance or by pledged collateral held by the Corporation's agent bank in the Corporation's name.

Investments: The Corporation's investments at September 30, 2019 are as follows:

	Carrying Value	Maturity One (1) Year or Less	Weighted Average Maturity (Years)
Bank Certificates of Deposit	$ 750,000	$ 750,000	0.42

All the Corporation's investments at September 30, 2019 have maturities of one year or less and therefore there is no difference between the carrying amount and fair value. Of the $750,000 balance, $750,000 (the entire balance) was covered by FDIC insurance.

Sufficient funds are held in the operating account to meet anticipated current obligations (obligations due within 180 days). Funds held for longer periods are invested in high yield certificates of deposits or U.S. Treasury Notes with maturities of one year or less.

Interest Rate Risk: The strategy of the Corporation is to maintain sufficient liquidity in its portfolio so that it does not need to sell a security prior to maturity. Should it become necessary to sell a security prior to maturity, the written consent of the CEO must be obtained.

3. Capital Assets

A summary of changes in capital assets for the Corporation during the year ended September 30, 2019 follows:

5. Economic Development Agreements

The Corporation has entered into or is in the process of entering into grant and tax abatement agreements with certain entities for the purpose of developing economic growth within the City of DeSoto. These agreements provide funds contingent upon the fulfillment of certain conditions by the grantees. The anticipated payout of these grants and tax abatements are as follows:

	$ 10,346,350

6. Promotional Expenditures

In 1979 the Texas Legislature passed the Development Corporation Act of 1979, (the "Act"). The Act limits Type A and Type B Corporations to spending no more than 10 percent of the corporate revenues (Type A and Type B tax proceeds) for promotional purposes. The Act does not define the term "promotional purposes". However, the Texas Attorney General has concluded that a promotional expenditure "must advertise or publicize the city for the purpose of developing new and expanded business enterprises". Further, a corporation is limited to spending not more than 10 percent of its current annual revenues for promotional purposes in any given year. Nonetheless, unexpended revenues specifically set aside for promotional purposes in the past years may be expended along with 10 percent of current revenues without violating the cap.

The balance of this unexpended carryforward is as follows:

FYE September 30	Promotional Carryforward Balance
2012	$ 177,061
2013	203,182
2014	260,591
2015	321,898
2016	320,709
2017	341,601
2018	420,730
2019	414,492

7. Tax Abatements

The Corporation entered into an Economic Development Incentive Agreement with a local business under the Development Corporation Act, Chapters 501-505 of the Texas Local Government Code. Under the act, the Corporation may provide economic development grants for the creation and retention of primary jobs that are required for the development of manufacturing and industrial facilities and for infrastructure suitable for new or expanded industrial business enterprises. For fiscal year September 30, 2019, the Corporation abated sales tax totaling $494,950, which represents 95% of the sales tax receipts paid by the local business from January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2018.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Board of Directors
DeSoto Economic Development Corporation
DeSoto, Texas

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the governmental activities and the major fund of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation, a component unit of the City of DeSoto, Texas, as of and for the year ended September 30, 2019, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's basic financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated _____, 2020.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinions on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the DeSoto Economic Development Corporation's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control or on compliance. Coronavirus Precautions for the DeSoto Chamber of Commerce & our Members

As chamber and community professionals, we are a lot of things.

We are economic development gurus, event planners, social media strategy advisors, and therapists. But the one thing we're not (unless you had time to get a medical degree) is virus and immunology experts. Yet, with the coronavirus (COVID-19) being the hot topic at every dinner and investment table these days, it's important for us to be disseminators of good information and conveners when necessary.

The chamber community is split about how we should handle this situation. While it's affecting everyone in the world, the degree to which it's happening at the moment of this writing varies. With more tests available, the number of individuals appearing to be affected is bound to increase. People are prone to panic. The shelves in your grocery stores and drug stores may be the first signs you see of the actual illness.

How involved you get also depends on your community's involvement:

Some communities, particularly large metro areas, may see declines in tourism and cancellation of conferences, not to mention supplies. We may all see an eventual erosion in consumer confidence but that may be a little too early to call. Virtual is becoming a big deal. In fact, classes and exams at the local Universities will occur virtually through March 20th.

Even really large conferences are considering virtual options. Some people are frightened of large-scale meetings and events. As of this writing, there's a 200,000-signature petition floating around encouraging the organizers of the music, film, and technology extravaganza–South by Southwest (SXSW)–has canceled its event in Austin, Texas, which drawers about 400,000 people to the area from across the globe.

Even if the virus is not as virulent as some medical professionals have predicted (that is yet to be seen), the economic impact for some communities is undeniable even now. The decisions we are making at the chamber don't involve 400,000 people converging on our area but they are weighty for our members and the DeSoto community nonetheless.

There is no blanket answer for what's right for our chamber and our community. Up until this point, we've all been affected differently. Some areas have a lot of people directly affected and others may not have any.

TEXAS

Suggestions from the DeSoto Chambers and Members in regards to the Coronavirus

As a chamber professional, we have two main responsibilities.

First, making decisions for the chamber. We need to be asking if there's anything to cancel on our end and should we even be considering cutting down on your member business visits.

Our second responsibility is one of advisor to member businesses. Many of you may be asking what to do? During this time the Chamber will walk a fine line between providing good information and inciting panic. The Chamber will be known as a helpful source of information and not one who creates unnecessary concern among the already high-strung public.

As I mentioned earlier, there isn't one right way to proceed.

What Can the Chamber Do?

Each community is at a different level of concern and need based on spread of the coronavirus. Also, what might be right for you right now from a communication perspective may change over the next month or two, or even the next few days.

It's likely that this virus will have lasting repercussions on the business world. We've already seen it in the stock market. Since many of our products come from other countries, even after the virus wains, we may be waiting on things. In the short term, people in the community may become more hesitant to leave their homes or go to public places like malls, stores, and restaurants.

The Chamber will be there with accurate information and helpful tips. You may also want to use this time to run through scenarios. Even if the virus disappears overnight, consumer confidence will take a hit as will travel and imports. As a community we will want to think about how you will help your businesses regrow after the virus runs its course.

Basic Precautions for Businesses

For businesses and communities who have no or very few cases of the virus, there are still basic precautions that can be shared as well as followed by the chamber. While some of these precautions seem obvious, they should be repeated and make great content for social media posts, memes, and infographics.

Some of these worthwhile tips include:

Wash Your Hands

Mom's right. Do it often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds, concentrating most of your scrubbing on your fingertips. If soap and water aren't available, hand sanitizer can be used as well as alcohol pads or other forms of germ killers.

Keep Your Hands Away From Your Face, Particularly Your Eyes and Mouth

You don't know what's on them so keep them away from the areas where the contagion can easily be introduced.

Cough into a Sleeve, Not into Your Hand or the Air

COVID-19 is spread to the respiratory system, mainly via water droplets. When you cough, those water droplets are set free and you'd be surprised just how far those things can roam.

Get Good Rest

Again, your parents were right. Getting good rest can ensure your immune system is functioning at its highest levels. This is not a time to run yourself ragged or become overly stressed in a situation that may impact your ability to rest. If you find yourself stressed about words like pandemic and seeing global maps with huge red spray, concentrate on something in your life that calms you. This could be a hobby, meditative practice, or spending time with friends and family. Remember fear and stress tax the body. This is a good time to practice self-care.

Get a Flu Shot

The experts suggest getting a flu shot. Not because it will protect you from COVID-19 but because it will help health professionals eliminate the possibilities between whether it's the flu or COVID-19.

Encourage Sick Employees to Stay Home

Don't make any of your employees feel like their health or the health of your office staff, customers, vendors, members, and any other people who come in contact with your business is less important than their work.

While the symptoms vary with individuals, most of those who present with symptoms develop a fever. Encourage anyone who has a temperature over 100.4 to stay at home until they've been fever-free for over 24 hours.

You may also want to encourage employees with sick children, spouses, and other close relatives in the home to stay home as well. The virus can be asymptomatic, meaning a person can be carrying it without showing signs of infection.

The CDC had this additional advice for businesses as well:

"Ensure that sick leave policies are flexible and consistent with public health guidance and that employees are aware of these policies.

Talk with companies that provide your business with contract or temporary employees about the importance of sick employees staying home and encourage them to develop non-punitive leave policies.

Do not require a healthcare provider's note for employees who are sick with acute respiratory illness to validate their illness or to return to work, as healthcare provider offices and medical facilities may be extremely busy and not able to provide such documentation in a timely way.

Employers should maintain flexible policies that permit employees to stay home to care for a sick family member. Employers should be aware that more employees may need to stay at home to care for sick children or other sick family members than is usual."

Stay Safe and productive

7. Customer Service Initiative Progam rollout at the Regional Economic Development (R.E.D) Summit as ICSI's Host City in the Amount of $3000

2020 RED Summit Notes

The RED Summit committee met via conference call on February 18, 2020 to discuss the event to be held April 2nd at the Hilton Garden Inn. Topics discussed included the following:

Tentative Event Program:

9:30-10:45- iCSI Customer Service Program Rollout

10:45-11:00- Break

11:00-11:30- Networking and Main Program Registration

11:30-1PM- Red Luncheon and Program

iCSI Customer Service Training Rollout Notes:

- Initial training at RED Summit to focus on getting leaders of local companies on board with the need for the program by sharing survey results as well as giving an overview of courses to be offered and how they can be tailored to each specific industry sector, etc.
- Each local EDC would be responsible for getting interested companies in their cities to be a part of the program.
- Funding for the program would come from 3 sources:
    - A Texas Workforce Commission Grant secured by CVC (see grant information form attachment 7A-4)
    - Each EDC would provide additional seed money that would help offset the cost of the program for those companies that do not qualify for the TWC grant. Each Founding City EDC would be asked to contribute $3000 towards the initiative and all other area EDC's would be asked to contribute $1,500 each. Additionally, each founding EDC that contributed to the initiative would be responsible for recruiting at least 10 companies form their city and all other contributing EDC's would be asked to recruit at least 5 companies. That way, each city would see direct value in the program while bettering the entire region.
- Each company that participated in the program would receive some type of decal and or certificate to differentiate them from their peers saying something like "Best Southwest Partnership Customer Service Excellence Certified".
- It was also mentioned that BSWP should schedule time to present this initiative to stakeholders Councils and or EDC Boards to make sure everyone is on the same page.

RED Summit Main Program:

- In the past, a part of the RED Summit was highlighting a project form each community from the past year. The committee felt that rather than do this they wanted to concentrate the program on preparing for future successes.
- As such, there were four main topics considered for the feature presentation:
    - Developers Roundtable
    - Logistics and Transportation Roundtable

    - Workforce Development Roundtable
    - Manufacturing Roundtable
- The consensus of the group was that a developers roundtable would be the most beneficial topic for the main presentation. However, everyone was quick to point out the negative feedback of the past and suggested we invite developers who have and continue to invest in the BSWP Region as well as other areas of the grater DFW region to discuss both the positives of the region and potential opportunities for improvement and share differences as to how other cities approach economic development.

To Do's:

- Local EDC Directors will provide names of developers they feel would add value as a part of the roundtable and once a consensus is reached, they will reach out and invite the chosen ones to be on the RED Summit Panel
